

Robert O. Oakes, Jr.
Mayor

Wayne Gray
Mayor Pro Tem

Cliff Ogburn own Manager

Town of Nags Head
Post Office Box 99
Nags Head, North Carolina 27959
Telephone 252-441-5508
Fax 252-441-0776
www.townofnagshead.net

Doug Remaley
Commissioner

Anna D. Sadler
Commissioner

M. Renée Cahoon
Commissioner

Code of Ethics for the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Nags Head, North Carolina

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS, the Constitution of North Carolina, Article I, Section 35, reminds us that a "frequent recurrence to fundamental principles is absolutely necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty," and

WHEREAS, a spirit of honesty and forthrightness is reflected in North Carolina's state motto, Esse quam videri, "To be rather than to seem," and

WHEREAS, Section 160A-86 of The North Carolina General Statutes requires local governing boards to adopt a code of ethics, and

WHEREAS, as public officials we as well as the members of other boards of the Town of Nags Head ("the Town") are charged with upholding the trust of the citizens of this Town, and with obeying the law, and

WHEREAS, the members of this Board of Commissioners and the members of all other boards of the Town should all should endeavor to act in a lawful and ethical manner and should use this Code of Ethics as a guide for acting in such a manner.

NOW THEREFORE, in recognition of the blessings and obligations as citizens of the State of North Carolina and as public officials representing the citizens of the Town of Nags Head, and acting pursuant to the requirements of Section 160A-86 of the North Carolina General Statutes, we the Board of Commissioners do hereby adopt the following General Principles and Code of Ethics to guide the Board of Commissioners and all other boards of the Town in their lawful decision-making.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES UNDERLYING THE CODE OF ETHICS

- The stability and proper operation of democratic representative government depend upon public confidence in the integrity of the government and upon responsible exercise of the trust conferred by the people upon their elected officials.
- Governmental decisions and policy must be made and implemented through proper channels and processes of the governmental structure.
- Board members must be able to act in a manner that maintains their integrity and independence, yet is responsive to the interests and needs of those they represent.
- Board members must always remain aware that at various times they play different roles:
 - As advocates, who strive to advance the legitimate needs of their citizens
 - As legislators, who balance the public interest and private rights in considering and enacting ordinances, orders, and resolutions
 - As decision-makers, who arrive at fair and impartial quasi-judicial and administrative determinations.
- Board members must know how to distinguish among these roles, to determine when each role is appropriate, and to act accordingly.
- Board members must be aware of their obligation to conform their behavior to standards of ethical conduct that warrant the trust of their constituents. Each official must find within his or her own conscience the touchstone by which to determine what conduct is appropriate.

CODE OF ETHICS

The purpose of this Code of Ethics is to establish guidelines for ethical standards of conduct for the Board of Commissioners and all other boards of the Town to help determine what conduct is appropriate in particular cases. It should not be considered a substitute for the law or for a board member's best judgment.

Section 1. Board members should obey all laws applicable to their official actions as members of the board. Board members should be guided by the spirit as well as the letter of the law in whatever they do.

At the same time, board members should feel free to assert policy positions and opinions without fear or reprisal from fellow board members or citizens. To declare that a board member is behaving unethically because one disagrees with the board member on a question of policy (and not because of the board member's behavior) is unfair, dishonest, irresponsible, and itself unethical.

Section 2. Board members should act with integrity and independence from improper influence as they exercise the duties of their offices. Characteristics and behaviors consistent with this standard include the following:

- Adhering firmly to a code of sound values.
- Behaving consistently and with respect toward everyone with whom they interact.
- Exhibiting trustworthiness.
- Living as if they are on duty as elected or appointed officials regardless of where they are or what they are doing.
- Using their best independent judgment to pursue the common good as they see it, presenting their opinions to all in a reasonable, forthright, consistent manner.
- Remaining incorruptible, self-governing, and unaffected by improper influence while at the same time being able to consider the opinions and ideas of others.
- Disclosing contacts and information about issues that they receive outside of public meetings and refraining from seeking or receiving information about quasi-judicial matters outside of the quasi-judicial proceedings themselves.
- Treating other board members and the public with respect and honoring the opinions of others even when the board members disagree with those opinions.
- Not reaching conclusions on issues until all sides have been heard
- Showing respect for their offices and not behaving in ways that reflect badly on those offices.
- Recognizing that they are part of a larger group and acting accordingly.
- Recognizing that individual board members are not generally allowed to act on behalf of the board but may only do so if the board has taken official action as a body delegating such authority.

Section 3.a. Board members should avoid impropriety in the exercise of their official duties. Their official actions should be above reproach. Although opinions may vary about what behavior is inappropriate, this Board and other boards will consider impropriety in terms of whether a reasonable person who is aware of all the relevant facts and circumstances surrounding the board member's action would conclude that the action was inappropriate.

Section 3.b. If a board member believes that his or her actions, while legal and ethical, may be misunderstood, the member should seek the advice of the Town's Attorney or appropriate board attorney and should consider publicly disclosing the facts of the situation and the steps taken to resolve it (such as consulting with the attorney).

Section 4. Board members should faithfully perform the duties of their offices. They should act as the especially responsible citizens whom others can trust and respect. They should set a good example for others in the community, keeping in mind that trust and respect must continually be earned.

Board members should faithfully attend and prepare for meetings. They should carefully analyze all credible information properly submitted to them, mindful of the need not to engage in communications outside the meeting in quasi-judicial matters. They should demand full accountability from those over whom the board has authority.

Board members should be willing to bear their fair share of the board's workload. To the extent appropriate, they should be willing to put the board's interests ahead of their own.

Section 5. Board members should conduct the affairs of the board in an open and public manner. They should comply with all applicable laws governing open meetings and public records, recognizing that doing so is an important way to be worthy of the public's trust. They should remember when they meet that they are conducting the public's business. They should also remember that local government records belong to the public and not to board members of their employees.

In order to ensure strict compliance with the laws concerning openness, board members should make clear that an environment of transparency and candor is to be maintained at all times in the governmental unit. They should prohibit unjustified delay in fulfilling public records requests. They should take deliberate steps to make certain that any closed sessions held by the board are lawfully conducted and that such sessions do not stray from the purposes for which they are called.

Adopted this 1st day of December 2010.

Robert O. Oakes, Jr., Mayor
Town of Nags Head

ATTEST:

Carolyn Morris, Clerk