- Pass one mile run test 8:00 minutes or less
- Pass 500-meter swim test 10:00 minutes or less
- Pass pre-employment background check and drug test
- Pass pre-employment physical

Our training camp starts two weeks prior to Memorial Day weekend, May 14th - May 26th. This training camp is mandatory for all first-year guards and provides will all of the required certifications. You are paid during training camp. Our first day on the beach will then be Saturday, May 27th, and the summer season ends on Labor Day, Monday September 4th; preference will be given to applicants that can work for the entire summer season. Additionally we plan to run a second, smaller training camp early June (dates TBD). The summer season is followed by a smaller staffed fall season that runs from Labor Day through to October 31st.

Nags Head Ocean Rescue Lifeguard pay range is $16-$20.25 per hour, starting base pay is $16.00 per hour, or $16.50 per hour for North Carolina EMT certification.

A housing supplement of $50 per week is also available for lifeguards who work a minimum of 40 hours per week. Housing is not provided by the lifeguard agency, if accepted for hire it is your responsibility to locate housing. With this being said, we will make reasonable attempts to assist you in locating affordable housing and roommates (other lifeguards) in the area.

End of season bonus available.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call, or email me.
